November’s Front Range Teen Science Café will feature Ms. Nicole Sedgeley. Ms. Sedgeley is an Education Specialist with the City of Fort Collins Utilities.

Ever wanted to rule the city for a day? Here’s your chance! Join us to learn about some of the most innovative climate projects happening in Fort Collins and around the world—think solar canals, roads paved with toilets, and carbon nanofibers! Then, you decide. How will Fort Collins reach the goal of becoming carbon neutral by 2050? The future of the city is in your hands!
